

BILLSHRINK STATEMENT REWARDS Frequently Asked Questions

What is StatementRewards?

StatementRewards is a new way to help people save money. It is a free feature of your online banking service that presents you money-saving opportunities directly within your online banking session.

What type of rewards might I be offered?

There are two primary reward types: Purchase rewards and bill analyzer recommendations. Purchase rewards will typically provide deals/discounts at the country's leading retailers – such as department stores, restaurants, specialty stores, etc. The bill analyzer feature allows you to do a personalized search and find money-saving recommendations on important monthly expenses such as your cell phone bill, TV service, gas fill-ups, etc.

How do I sign up?

StatementRewards will be seamlessly delivered within the transaction listings in your online banking session. The following image provides a visual representation of the integrated StatementRewards feature, with the green tag icon marking transactions that have been annotated with a reward:

The screenshot shows a banking interface with a dropdown menu set to 'CHECKING'. On the right, it displays 'Current Balance: 5,415.18' and 'Available Balance: 2,644.55'. Below this is a 'Current Transactions' section with a search icon. A 'View Range' section offers options: 'Since Last Statement', '7 Days', '15 Days', and '30 Days'. The main table lists transactions with columns for Date, Ref/Check No., Description, Debit, Credit, and Balance. Several transactions are highlighted with a green tag icon and a reward message: 'Save an average of $336 on your cell phone service' for a Verizon Wireless mobile bill, 'Get $25 of merchandise for $20 at Target' for a Target transaction, and 'Get $50 of merchandise for $40 at Walmart' for a Walmart transaction.

How much does it cost?

StatementRewards is completely free.

What are the primary benefits to me?

- Get relevant offers from your favorite retailers
- Receive personalized analysis on some of your largest monthly bills to see if you can right-size your expenses to save money

Can I tell you what rewards I want to see?

Rewards are dynamically selected and presented based upon your specific purchase and payments. Rewards are selected with a goal of maximizing relevance and value for you. However, you can help the system better personalize the reward selection for you by using the "Like" and "Dislike" buttons next to your in-statement rewards.

How do I redeem rewards?

When you purchase a reward, you will be immediately presented with information on how to redeem that specific reward with the corresponding retailer. In general, offers can be redeemed through a variety of methods depending upon the merchants' capabilities. For some rewards, you will be prompted to print out a coupon to use in-store. Some rewards will provide a code for online use. In all cases, you will get an explanation of the redemption instructions prior to purchase.

Where can I find a summary of all my StatementRewards information?

The StatementRewards feature includes a User Dashboard which is accessible by clicking on the "See rewards" link at the bottom of the transaction listings page. The User Dashboard provides a centralized view of your StatementRewards profile.

For instance, the Available Rewards tab provides a consolidated view of all the rewards and offers that are currently available to you. The Purchased Rewards tab provides a history of all the rewards you've previously purchased. Each purchased reward will also provide a link with which you can retrieve the associated redemption information. The Bill Analyzer tab provides a summary view of your recommendations for wireless, TV, and gas services.

Why is FNB offering me StatementRewards?

We strive to look for new ways to help our customers save money and lower their bills. Studies show that on wireless bills alone, 8 out of 10 people are overpaying each month. New products like StatementRewards provide rewards that average savings of $1000 per household annually.

What if I don't want to receive rewards and bill analysis?

If you prefer not to benefit from StatementRewards, you always have the option of opting-out from the service. In fact, you can opt-out directly within your online account, with an easily accessed control, and no need to contact customer support.

Is my personal information at risk?

Absolutely not. StatementRewards is 100% secure, just like the rest of your online banking account. The transactional data used to personalize your rewards is anonymous, and moreover, all information contained within the StatementRewards platform is protected through layers of security and encryption measures to help ensure it is comprehensively protected.

Does the service utilize personally-identifying customer information?

No. StatementRewards does not automatically transmit or transfer any personally identifiable information from your FirstTouch Online Banking account.

What if I have additional questions about StatementRewards?

Please contact a Customer Service Representative and we will be happy to help you out.
